

BHAKTA 1868 BARREL 3 HAMILTON BOURBON WHISKEY AND VINTAGE ARMAGNAC

BHAKTA 1868, BARREL 3 HAMILTON, is one of just five barrels honoring the United States of America in celebration of its 250th birthday. Each barrel is named. Each bottle numbered. Each sip contains over 100 vintages of spirits spanning nearly 150 years, from 1868 to 2014.

Meticulously crafted barrel by barrel and bottled at cask strength, this bourbon-based blend carries an average age of over 30 years.

Named for Alexander Hamilton, this barrel honors intellect in action, order in motion, and strength put to national purpose. Its 1893 Legacy Vintage sharpens that tribute, marking Barrel 3 with the restless energy of one of America's great builders.

"To celebrate America's 250th birthday, we did something only BHAKTA can do. We poured the jewels into just five barrels. The connection to America250 is real – history you can taste."

BLEND COMPOSITION

1868 is the oldest vintage and 2014 is the youngest. The taste is unmistakably bourbon-forward, with our 2005 and 2014 vintage bourbons comprising most of the blend. Other key components include our finest Armagnac vintages such as 1962, 1973, and 1981. Further subtlety and depth are provided through the over 100 vintages we used to create these masterpiece barrels. The 1893 Armagnac stands as Barrel 3's Hamilton Legacy Vintage.
